

1. adept very skilled or good at something

2. ambivalent having mixed feelings or contradictory ideas about something or someone

3. amplify to make something larger, louder, or more important

4. commensurate equal or similar to something in size, amount, or degree

5. concede to admit that something is true

6. conjecture

a guess about something based on how it seems and not on proof

7. contemplate

to think carefully about something for a long time

8. doctrine

a set of ideas or beliefs that are taught or believed to be true

9. exemplary

serving as a desirable model, representing the best of its kind

10. extrapolate

to guess or think about what might happen using information that is already known

11. imperative

extremely important or necessary

12. incite

to encourage or stir up violent or unlawful behavior

13. inclusive

containing all the services or features that are needed

14. mitigate to make something less severe, harmful, or damaging

15. criteria a factor, guideline, criterion, or framework of/for something

16. physiological related to the way in which the bodies of living things work

17. posit to suggest something as a basic fact or principle from which a further idea is formed or developed

18. principle a fundamental truth or proposition that serves as the foundation for a system of belief or behavior

19. procedure a fixed way of doing things

20. prolific producing a lot of something

21. psychological related to the human mind and feelings

22. redundant not needed because something else does the same job

23. section a part of something larger

24. simulate to create conditions or events that resemble reality, often for study or training purposes

25. task

a piece of work to be done

26. technique

a particular way of doing something

27. underlying used to identify the idea, cause, problem, etc., that forms the basis of something

28. unify

to join together to form one group

29. viable

capable of working or being successful

---

30. visual

related to seeing or to the eyes

