

1. apparent

easy to see or understand; clear to anyone

2. appreciate

to recognize the value of something

3. complementary

something that completes or goes well with something else

4. compose

to create or write, like a song, poem, or letter

5. conceive

to think of or come up with a new idea or plan

6. critique

to give your opinion about the good and bad parts of something

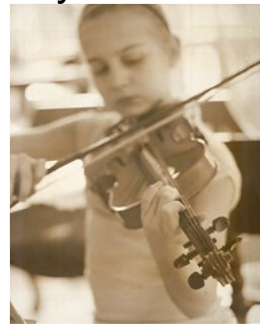

7. debatable

something that people have different opinions about

8. dedicated

very committed or loyal to something or someone

9. deficient

not having enough of something

10. depart

to leave a place, usually to go somewhere else

11. deviate

to change from the usual or expected way

12. diligent

hard-working and careful

13. drastic

very big and noticeable

14. edit

to make changes to something written, often to improve it

15. elicit

to get a reaction, answer, or information from someone

16. endow

to give someone or something a quality, talent, or asset

17. ensue

to happen after something else, usually as a result of it

18. evident

clear to the mind or senses; easy to see or understand

19. exert

to use a lot of physical or mental energy to do something

20. induce

to cause something to happen

21. inferior

not as good as something else; lower in quality or value

22. inspect

to look at something carefully to check it

23. interrupt

to stop someone from talking or something from happening

24. investigate

to carefully examine the facts to discover the truth

25. mobile

able to move or be moved easily

26. preliminary happening before a more important action or event

27. qualitative

related to the quality or character of something rather than its quantity

blue

tall

BIG

28. quantify

to measure or express the amount of something

29. repetitive

doing the same thing again and again; not changing

30. superior

better than other things; of higher quality or value

