

1. active

doing things, not just sitting and waiting, often involving physical movement

2. balance

a state where different things occur in equal or proper amounts or importance

3. civilization

a society with a high level of culture, science, industry, and government

4. competitive

trying very hard to be better than others

5. conditions

the state something is in, the circumstances affecting the way in which people live or work

6. continuous

happening without stopping, or happening repeatedly without gaps or pauses

7. depend on to need something or someone in order to survive or to achieve something

8. desire

a strong wish to have or do something

9. disproportionate not in correct relation or balance with something else

10. divide

to separate into parts or groups, or to make something do this

11. enlarge

to make something bigger, or become bigger

12. humanitarian

related to improving people's lives and reducing suffering

13. immediate

happening or done without delay or very soon after something else

14. independent

not influenced or controlled by others, capable of thinking or acting for oneself

15. lack

not having enough of something or any at all

16. momentum

the force that keeps an object moving or keeps an event developing after it has started

17. obedient

willing to do what someone tells you to do or to follow a law, rule, etc.

18. opportunity

a situation in which it is possible for you to do something that you want to do

19. oppose

to disagree with something or someone, often by speaking or fighting against it, him, or her

20. performance

how well a person, machine, etc. does a piece of work or an activity

21. philosophy

the study of the nature and meaning of the universe and of human life

22. reform

to make an improvement, especially by changing a policy or system

23. resemble

to look like or be similar to another person or thing

24. social

relating to activities in which you meet and spend time with other people

25. sophisticated

having a good understanding of the world and experiences; complex or intricate

26. stimulate

to encourage something such as an activity or a process so that brain activity or progress increases

27. supervise

to watch a person or activity to make certain that everything is done correctly, safely, etc.

28. tactic

a planned way of doing something

29. tend to regularly or frequently behave in a particular way or have a certain characteristic

30. upset

to make someone worried, unhappy, or angry

