

1. adjacent next to or near something

2. advocate to support or argue in favor of a cause, idea, or person

3. amend to make changes to something in order to improve or correct it

4. analogy a comparison between two things to show how they are similar in some way

5. apparatus a set of equipment or tools used for a specific purpose

6. attribute a characteristic or quality that belongs to a person or thing

7. bolster to support or strengthen something

8. burgeon to grow or develop rapidly

9. clarify to make something easier to understand by explaining it more clearly

10. coherent clear and easy to understand, with all parts logically connected

11. comprise to include or consist of something

12. consensus a general agreement among a group of people

13. contend to argue or compete in order to achieve something

14. convene to gather together people or a group for a meeting or event

15. deter to discourage or prevent someone from doing something

16. demographic relating to the study of populations, especially their size and characteristics

17. displace

to move or force something or someone out of its usual place or position

18. emit

to send out or release something, such as light, heat, or sound

19. encompass to include or cover a wide range of things

20. erroneous

incorrect or based on false information

21. facilitate to make something easier or less difficult to do

22. foster

to encourage or help the growth or development of something

23. inhibit

to prevent or slow down the growth, development, or action of something

24. insulate

to protect something from outside influences, such as heat, cold, or noise

25. magnitude

the size, extent, or importance of something

26. mundane

ordinary, common, or not interesting

27. notion

an idea, belief, or understanding about something

28. paradigm

a model or example that serves as a pattern for understanding a concept or theory

29. rectify

to correct or fix something that is wrong or faulty

30. suppress to stop or prevent something from happening or being seen, often by force

