

1. apprehensive worried or fearful about what might happen

2. ascertain to find out something for certain

3. autonomy the ability to make your own decisions; freedom

4. category a group of people or things that are similar in some way

5. contrived planned or created, but seeming false and not natural

6. conundrum a difficult problem, one that is hard to deal with

7. converge to move towards one point from different directions

8. descriptive giving details about how something looks, sounds, etc.

9. dichotomy a division into two groups that are entirely different

10. disparage to say negative things about someone or something

11. empathetic

being able to understand other people's feelings

12. evoke

to bring a feeling, memory or image into mind

13. fallacy

a false idea or belief

14. formulate

to create, invent, or produce something by careful thought and effort

15. fruitful

producing good or useful results

16. immerse

to become completely involved in an activity

17. innate something you are born with, not learned

18. presume

to think that something is true, even though you are not certain

19. prior happening or existing before a particular event or time

20. prospect the possibility that something will happen in the future

21. publish to prepare and print a book, magazine, piece of music, etc., so that people can buy it

22. regime

a particular government or a system or method of government

23. rigid not able to be changed or adapted

24. scenario a description of possible actions or events in the future

25. substitute a person or thing that takes the place of someone or something else

26. supplement something that is added to something else to make it complete

27. tangible real and not imaginary; able to be shown, touched, or experienced

28. theorize to form an idea or theory about something, even though the details are not known or certain

29. transient

not lasting long or staying in one place for a long time

30. volume

the amount or quantity of something

