

1. accommodate to make room for something or someone, or to adjust to fit a need or condition

2. append to add something at the end of a document or piece of writing

3. compatible able to exist or work together without problems

4. compensate to make up for something that is missing or not enough; to pay money for a service

5. confine to keep something or someone within limits; to restrict

6. contract

(n) a written agreement between two parties; (v) to get smaller

7. convert to change something into a different form or so it can be used in a different way

8. debate

a discussion where different people express different opinions about a subject

9. define

to explain the meaning of a word or concept

study
(verb)

The act of texting, eating and watching TV with an open textbook nearby.

10. designate

to choose someone or something for a special purpose

11. dimension

a measurable extent such as length, width, or height

12. disclose

to make information known or to reveal something that was previously hidden or unknown

13. document

to record details about something or someone

14. eliminate

to remove or get rid of something

15. entity

something that exists independently, such as a company or an organism

16. evolve

to change or develop slowly, often into a better or more complex form

17. finite

having an end or limit; not infinite

18. grant to give or allow someone something, usually in an official way

19. insert

to put something into something else

20. layer

a level of material or substance that is above or below another

21. levy

to impose (a tax, fee, or fine)

22. negate

to deny or make ineffective

23. respond

to answer or reply to something

24. restrain

to hold back or limit the movement or action of someone or something

25. retrieve

to get or bring something back from somewhere

26. saturate

to completely fill, soak, or cover something with a large amount of something

27. scheme

a plan or program of action; especially a crafty or secret one

28. specify

to state or describe in detail

29. warrant to justify or necessitate (a certain course of action), or a document that gives an official instruction or right

30. yield to produce or provide something, like a plant producing fruit or an investment making money. Also means to give way to arguments, demands, or pressure

Group 25 TOEFL

Study online at [https://quizlet.com/\_dhwz kf](https://quizlet.com/_dhwz kf)

---

