

-
1. ambiguous having more than one possible meaning, which can cause confusion

-
2. arbitrary based on personal preference or random choice, rather than reason or logic

-
3. collaborate to work together with others on a project or task

-
4. concise expressing information clearly and briefly, using few words

Get To the Point

-
5. comply to follow rules, instructions, or requests

6. depict to represent or show something through images or words

7. differentiate to recognize or show the differences between things or people

8. dispose to get rid of something or throw it away

9. disperse to spread or scatter over a wide area

10. ethical relating to moral principles or accepted rules of right and wrong behavior

11. exceed to go beyond a limit or standard

12. exhibit

to display or show something, such as artwork or information

13. exploit

to take advantage of something or someone, often unfairly

14. feasible

possible to do or achieve; realistic or practical

15. hierarchical

organized in levels of importance or authority

16. impose

to force someone to accept or deal with something

17. inclination

a preference or tendency to feel, think, or act in a certain way

18. infrastructure

the basic systems and structures that a country or organization needs to function properly

19. intervene

to become involved in a situation to improve or change it

20. modify to change or alter something, often to improve it

21. negligible

so small or unimportant that it can be ignored or not worth considering

22. persist

to continue to do or try something, even when it is difficult or others oppose it

23. reinforce

to make something stronger or more effective, often by adding support or additional resources

24. revise to make changes or improvements to something, such as a document or plan

25. scrutiny

careful examination or close observation of something

26. solely

only or exclusively, with no other factors or people involved

27. stance

a person's opinion, attitude, or position on a particular issue

28. trivial

of little importance or value

No big deal.

© Matt Watson 2012

29. underestimate to think that something is smaller, weaker, or less important than it really is

30. widespread covering a large area or affecting many people or things

