

1. accelerate to speed up or increase the speed of something

2. accompany to go with someone or to be provided or exist at the same time as something

3. advent the arrival or beginning of something important or impressive

4. arid a description for a place that is very dry and receives little rainfall

5. assemble to bring or gather things together into a single group or place

6. construct to build or make something by putting parts together

7. contribute to give something, like money or time, to help achieve or provide something

8. cultivate to prepare and use land for growing plants or crops; or to develop a skill or quality

9. doubt

to not be certain or confident about something or to think that something is not likely

10. endanger

to put someone or something at risk or in danger

11. erosion

the process by which wind, water, or other natural agents gradually wear away soil, rock, or land

12. evolution

the process of change and development over time, often used to refer to natural or biological changes in plants and animals over generations

13. expose

to make something visible or known, often something that was previously hidden or secret

14. extinct

no longer in existence; specifically used to refer to a species of plant or animal that has no living members

15. fertile

able to produce abundant vegetation or crops; in the context of animals or humans, it refers to the ability to conceive offspring

---

16. format the way in which something is arranged or set out

---

17. marine related to the sea or sea transport

---

18. necessitate to make something necessary or unavoidable

---

19. prevent to stop something from happening or someone from doing something

---

20. progressive happening or developing gradually over time

21. rare

not common or frequent; very unusual

22. recover

to get back or regain something lost or taken away; to return to a normal state of health, mind, or strength

23. regular happening or done frequently or at uniform intervals

24. reliance

dependence on or trust in someone or something

25. reproduce

to produce again; in biology, it refers to the process by which plants and animals produce offspring

26. retain to keep or continue to have something

27. substance

a particular type of solid, liquid, or gas

28. successive

following one after the other in a sequence

29. susceptible

likely or liable to be influenced or harmed by a particular thing

30. tremendous

very great in amount, scale, or intensity

Group 9 TOEFL

Study online at https://quizlet.com/\_d9b60p

---

